

PROMINENT LARMAT ALUMNI

	Prof. Shellamiah Okoth Keya, a Professor Department of Land Resources Management and Agricultural Technology (LARMAT), University of Nairobi and Chancellor of Dedan Kimathi University of Science & Technology (DKUT). He graduated from Makerere University (BSc), Cornell University (MSc and PhD). Former Director of Microbiological Resource Center (MIRCEN), Chairman, Department of Soil Science, University of Nairobi, Dean, Faculty of Agriculture, Principal, College of Agriculture & Veterinary Sciences and Vice-Chancellor, Moi University. He is former Consultant for national Governments and international organizations such as FAO, UNEP, UNESCO, World Bank, UNDP, AGRA and NGOs.
	Prof. Dickson Nyariki, a Professor Department of Land Resources Management and Agricultural Technologies, University of Nairobi and the Ag. Deputy Vice Chancellor, Administration and HRM, South Eastern Kenya University (SEKU). Completed Bachelor of Range Management 1983 and Msc in Agricultural Economics 1990 from University of Nairobi. Former Deputy Principal (Administration and Finance): South Eastern University College, Regional Coordinator IGAD, Chairman, Department of Range Management, College of Agriculture and Veterinary Sciences.
	Michael Gachanja, The Executive Director East African Wild Life Society, Received BSC and MSC in Range Management department of Land Resource Management and Agricultural Technology, CAVS, University of Nairobi Read More
	Hon. John Michael Njenga Mututho, Former M.P. for Naivasha Constituency. Served as Chairman Departmental Committee on Agriculture, Lands and Natural Resources and Departmental Committee on Agriculture, Livestock and Cooperatives that oversees 6 Ministries. Before his service in Parliament, Mr. Mututho worked in the civil service for 11 years and was a coordinator of the International Agencies and Government of Kenya projects in Arid and Semi Arid Lands (ASAL) for 2 years. He designed a water harvesting systems implemented by FAO in Kenya and Ethiopia using shallow pit systems. He was also Chairman of Board of Governors Naivasha Girls Secondary School for 7 years and helped transform the school into a top performer. He founded Computers for Schools Kenya (CFSK) in 2002, an NGO through which more than 70,000 computers have been distributed to schools countrywide. Mr. Mututho has a Diploma in Range Management from Egerton University, Kenya and a B.Sc. in Range Management from the University of Nairobi, Kenya. He also has a Post Graduate Diploma in Resource Economics and an M.Sc. in Environment Economics from Latrobe University, Australia. He is best known for introducing the Alcohol Control Bill which among other things limits the operation time of bars and others alcohol selling outlets to 5:00 PM till 11:00 PM on weekdays and 2:00 PM to 11:00 PM on weekends

Dr. Vincent Kituku, a research-based motivational speaker/trainer. former training specialist for Idaho Power Company, and an active adjunct professor of Boise State University, Dr. Kituku also conducts professional and scholarly workshops at the University of Montana, George Fox University and the College of Southern Idaho. Bachelor of Science degree in Range Management from the University of Nairobi in 1985 and both his Masters and Doctorate from the University of Wyoming

Read More

	Chris Magero, a Natural Resource Management Specialist, African Conservation Centre (ACC). He is graduate of BSc and MSc in Range Management, 2006 and 2011 from Department of Land Resource Management and Agricultural Technology (LARMAT), University of Nairobi with a passion in environmental issues which regards communities and sustainable development. I have worked with several national and international environmental and development organizations to address diverse environmental issues, pertinent to development and centering on sustainability.
	Moffatt Ngugi, a Program Analyst (Climate Change in Agriculture) at USAID USDA-FAS Bachelor of Science degree in Rangeland Management in 1998, University of Nairobi former Ecologist at USDA-ARS and Terrestrial Carbon Scientist/consultant at The Heinz Center, Remote Sensing/Geospatial Consultant at Terra Global Capital Postdoc Researcher at UC Davis, CA, Graduate Research Assistant at Colorado State University - NREL VLIR scholar in Physical Land Resources at Ghent University in Belgium
	Wellington Ekaya- Training & Quality Assurance Manager, Regional Universities Forum for Capacity Building in Agriculture (RUFORUM), Received PhD IN dryland Ecology in 1999, University of Nairobi , MSc and BSc in Range management in 1993 and 1989 respectively from Department of Range Management , University of Nairobi
	Peter Njoroge Kamande, Project manger Center for Sustainable Dryland Ecosystems & Societies (CSDES), His experience in research, project evaluations. Trained as a Range Management specialist. A holder BSc. Range Management and MSc Land Resources Management from Department of Land Resource Management and Agricultural Technology (LARMAT), University of Nairobi
	Dr. Bell Okello is the Gender, Agriculture and Rural Development Specialist at the ICRW, and heads the East

Africa Regional Office (EARO) based in Nairobi. A trained agriculturalist and rangeland management specialist, Bell has worked as a researcher, lecturer, development worker and a consultant in development programs. His current work focuses on practical and sustainable approaches that promote gender equality and specifically, women's participation in agricultural value chains. Dr. Okello's academic, research, teaching, consultancy and development work experience has been in East, West and Southern Africa; India, the Netherlands and US.

Veronic Nyawira

Ms. Veronica Muthui
Programme Officer
Somali Natural Resources Management
Programme
IUCN - EARO, P.O. Box 68200
Nairobi, Kenya
Tel: 254-2-890605-12.
Fax: 254-2-890615
Email: Veronica.muthui@IUCN.unon.org