

RANKING WEB OF UNIVERSITIES, UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI RANKED NO. 10 IN AFRICA

Kenya holds third position after South Africa and Egypt in Africa eminent for Higher learning education. This was after webometric ranking of July 2020, which positioned The University of Nairobi at number 10 in Africa and no 1 in East Africa. Ranking web ranks uses all missions and research missions as key indicators in ranking universities across the globe, Further, the Ranking of Universities is based website content authenticity and varsity approach to initiate and encourage open access information, e-scientific publication and Journals. The University of Nairobi has been in front line in sustaining global performance through presence, transparency visibility and excellence.