

VIRTUAL EXAM ON PROGRESS: 1ST SEMESTER 2020-2021

All students turned in

Have you been worried whether the exam would be held when the pandemic is still in the Kenya, at University of Nairobi, every student must be tested for their course work in the two semesters? Learning has been online through different e- platforms and in LARMAT department, postgraduate students and 1st years commenced their first semester, 2020-2021 exams yesterday, 18th January 2021. The exam is conducted virtually under invigilation of lecturers and final paper is scheduled on 29th January 2021. Units which have been administered successfully so far are; Range Management in Pastoral societies, Agro Ecology and Biodiversity, Plant water relations and environmental Ethics. May you excel in your exams.

Exam administration and invigilation underway