

SUCCESSFUL PHD IN DRYLAND RESOURCE MANAGENT THESIS DEFENSE

Mr . Murongo Marius Flarian, a Ugandan PhD student in LARMAT yesterday on 10th August 2021, Succesfully defended hisPhD thesis. His Research study was on “Farmer Perception, and soil factors influencing tissue culture Banana adoption and productivity in Smallholder farms in Uganda”. We congratulate him as he works on corrections those arose from the FOA board of Examiners. The final and updated copy of the thesis will be submitted and subsequently approved for his Doctorate degree in Dryland Resource Management and thereafter conferred in September, 2021 during the 65th Graduation of the University of Nairobi

We wish him future endeavors in his professional expertise acquired.