

LARMAT STAFF RECOGNISED FOR OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE DURING CAVS CELEBRATIONS ON UON@50

17TH June 2021

 Prof. Shellemiah. Okoth Keya	Outstanding scholar who played pivotal role in the establishment of the Department of Soil Science and MIRCEN Laboratory, and innovation of Biofix inoculant.
 Prof. Jesse Theuri Njoka	Outstanding scholar in Range Science, recognition for consistently raising research funds to support postgraduate scholarships and for development of teaching and research infrastructure.
 Prof. Nancy K. Karanja	Outstanding scholar in Soil Biology and integrated soil fertility management, recognition for consistently raising research funds to support postgraduate scholarships and for development of teaching and research infrastructure.
 Mr. Henry C. Kahi	As Principal Technologist, served diligently in administrative and students field work support. Over the years he also played a pivotal role in CAVS environmental sustainability activities, mainly through tree planting.